Personenregister

“Interlinguistische Informationen” (IntI), das Mitteilungsblatt der Gesellschaft für Interlinguistik e.V., erschien 2001 im 10. Jahr. Das gilt auch für das „Informilo por Interlingvistoj“ (IpI), herausgegeben vom Centro de Esploro kaj Dokumentado pri la monda lingvo-problemo (CED). Beide stark bibliographisch angelegten Bulletins enthalten Informationen über Neuerscheinungen und Aktivitäten zu Problemen der internationalen Kommunikation, insbesondere über Plansprachen (Welthilfssprachen) und Esperantologie. IntI richtet sich an deutschsprachige Linguisten, Interlinguisten und andere an der Thematik Interessierte. IpI richtet sich an Esperanto-sprachige Fachleute. Der Inhalt beider Bulletins stimmt daher zu etwa 70% überein. Der Index wurde von Ino Kolbe aus Leipzig angefertigt.

2 Finnischer Rundfunk - in Latein

Aus einem Artikel in der „Frankfurter Allgemeinen Zeitung“ von Robert von Lucius

In der FAZ erschien ein Artikel von Robert von Lucius unter dem Titel „Und jetzt die Nachrichten in Latein“. Wir veröffentlichen Auszüge:

Fünf Minuten Rundfunknachrichten wöchentlich in Latein...Die Pflege des Latein weitete sich in Finnland aus wie in keinem anderen Land Europas. Wer im Bus eine Stadtrundfahrt durch Helsinki mitmacht, kann vom Tonband unter zehn Sprachen aussuchen, neben Deutsch oder Japanisch auch Latein. Als Finnland den Vorsitz der Europäischen Union hatte, übersetzte es wichtige Dokumente in Latein....

Als der finnische Hochschullehrer Tuomo Pekkanen - er übersetzte die Lyrik der Popband ebenso wie die 23 000 Verse des finnischen Nationalepos Kalevala in lateinische Vierheber -

1989 mit den Rundfunknachrichten begann, bekam er ein wenig Rückendeckung aus dem Saarland. Dort gibt es unter dem Dozenten Caelestis Eichenseer eine Arbeitsstelle Neulatein. Der mittlerweile emeritierte Kulturosoziologe Christian Helfer hatte ihn und die bereits 1955 gegründete Zeitschrift "Vox Latina" an seinen Lehrstuhl nach Saarbrücken geholt und ein Wörterbuch für Neulatein herausgegeben. Die Rundfunknachrichten "Nuntii Latini" in Finnland seien die einzigen in Europa außer den vom vatikanischen Rundfunk ausgestrahlten, berichtet Helfer, und letztere seien "eher Esperanto denn Latein".

Nicht nur Mitarbeiter der Universität des Saarlandes lesen die YLE-Nachrichten wöchentlich im Internet, am vergangenen Freitag etwa über den Papst und über die "delegati Tzetzenorum et Russorum" in Moskau, über "musulmani extremisti" in Ägypten vor Gericht, über Rugova, "Albanus moderatus", und über "Osama bin Laden". Zuvor waren sie auf Kurz- und Mittelwelle oder über Satellitenfunk nur schwer zu hören, nun aber sind sie über das Internet für jeden computerversierten Kenner und Liebhaber abrufbar, um zu sehen, wie die Hochschullehrer aus Helsinki und Jyväskylä mit Begriffen wie Taliban oder Flugzeugträger umgehen. Der finnische Rundfunk erhält Leserbriefe und Bitten um Programmdienste aus 50 Ländern und von 60 Universitäten: seiner Lateinsendung wegen, die in bisher fünf Büchern als Chronik des vergangenen Jahrzehnts zusammengefaßt wurde. Dabei bietet YLE Sprachkurse und Programme in sechzehn Sprachen. Um die Website www.yle.fi/fbc/latini herum entsteht nach und nach eine Gemeinde von Lateinschülern aus aller Welt.

Latein hat seit Jahrhunderten eine herausgehobene Rolle in Finnland gespielt. Dessen Landessprache, dem Ungarischen (auch Ungarn hatte bis zur Mitte des neunzehnten Jahrhunderts Latein im Ständerat gepflegt) entfernt und dem Estnischen nah verwandt, erlernen nur wenige Ausländer....Jeder Finne spricht durchschnittlich knapp drei Fremdsprachen...Mit Latein wollten nationalstolze Finnen belegen, daß sie sich eher dem Westen zugewandt fühlen denn dem lange Zeit politisch beherrschenden Rußland...
